ORDER:

In the reference 5th read above, the Commissioner, Panchayat Raj and Rural Development has stated that there are large number of Panchayat Secretary Gr.I, II & III vacancies available in the State, but there are no eligible persons who acquired minimum service of 3 years as prescribed in the G.O. 3rd read above are available for considering the promotion to the next Grade. Though most of the Panchayat Secretaries are having more than 10 years service in Gram Panchayat Administration, as the service rules were issued recently in the G.O. 3rd read above, eligible persons are not available for considering the promotion. He has requested the Government, to consider the minimum service of 1 year as a special case duly relaxing the existing rules to consider promotions/appointment by transfer to the Panchayat Secretary Gr.I, II & III in the panel year 2014-15.

2. The matter examined in the Government, in detail and observed as follows;

- As per the Service Rules issued in G.O. 3rd read above for the post of Panchayat Secretary Gr.I, II & III, there is no direct recruitment and vacant posts should be filled up only by promotion from the feeder category.
- Though, the Panchayat Secretary system was introduced in the year 2002, the integrated service rules were issued only in the year 2010 in G.O.3rd read above.
- Accordingly promotions were given for the first time in the year 2012 as per the above said rules.
- The Post of Panchayat Secretary is cutting edge level post and crucial in improving the delivery of services to the rural people especially in context of Smart Village & Smart Ward Programme, Janmabhoomi, Swachh Andhra and implementation of activities of various Missions proposed by the present Government. Hence, it is desirable that every cluster Panchayat shall have one regular Panchayat Secretary.
